BEST FRIEND

Hands up who wants to bring their beloved pooch to their wedding? We don't blame you, and neither do the folks at Stonefield Castle as it's a dog-friendly establishment. As well as being able to marry at the Loch Fyne beauty, the surrounding areas make it a blissful destination for a wedmin break. Wander around the 60 acres of woodland gardens and curl up by the fire with your furry friend in the evening. Rooms start at £89 a night. www.bespokehotels.com/stonefieldcastle

Staff at The Royal Hotel Oban were chuffed to bits when they received a visit from none other than Gordon Ramsay, Gino D'Acampo and Fred Sirieix (i.e. the dishy maître d' from Channel 4's First Dates). The trio spent a few nights there in June whilst filming a new ITV programme The Ultimate Road Trip. I wonder how the chefs in the kitchen felt about serving the food-famed gents?

SLEEP OVER

Exclusive hire nuptials just got more attractive at Loch Lomond Waterfront. Book the entire place for your w-day celebrations and you and your betrothed will scoop a two-night stay at the luxurious setting free of charge. This doesn't have to be directly after your big day. You could save your days for a mini-moon or spend them wisely and kip there the nights before your ceremony to tie up any of those pesky loose ends.

ANIMAL FARM

It isn't just fish who frequent the shores by Lodge on Loch Lomond. The Luss waterside venue played host to a big day where groom Chris surprised his new wife Colette with a sheep to feature in some of their pictures! It doesn't end there. The next day, doves took part in Jenna and Andrew's ceremony who released the birds to symbolise the start of their next chapter. www.loch-lomond.co.uk
